Woman-Owned Manufacturing Firm Moves Headquarters to San José

Naprotek relocates from Sunnyvale to access transportation networks

SAN JOSE, CA – Celebrating 20 years in business, Naprotek, a provider of electronic manufacturing services, has moved its woman-owned business from Sunnyvale to 90 Rose Orchard Way, San José.

“Naprotek was in need of additional manufacturing space to accommodate our rapid growth and to keep pace with our customers’ technology innovations,” said Najat Badriyeh, President of Naprotek. “San José offered the best option for us: a strategic location near major transportation corridors and close to our customers, and a great facility that meets our manufacturing requirements.”

Naprotek will celebrate its move and 20th anniversary at an open house on Friday, April 17, 2015, from 3:30 to 6:30 p.m. The program starts at 5:00 p.m.

When: Friday, April 17, 2015
Time: Open House: 3:30 to 6:30 p.m.
Program: 5:00 p.m. to 5:30 p.m.
Where: 90 Rose Orchard Way, San José

Speakers: Najat Badriyeh, President Naprotek
San José Mayor Sam Liccardo
Nanci Klein, San José Assistant Director of Economic Development

“Companies like Naprotek play a critical part of the advanced manufacturing ecosystem that is flourishing in San José,” said Nanci Klein, the city’s assistant director of economic development. “We’re pleased to welcome Naprotek to North San José and are excited about the contributions that Najat and her team will make to our community’s prosperity.”

About Naprotek Inc.

Founded in 1995 by entrepreneur Najat Badriyeh, Naprotek has provided electronic manufacturing services to start-ups and OEMs in Silicon Valley and throughout the US. Naprotek evolved from a consigned-assembly business to a full-suite service provider for printed circuit assemblies and box-build. Naprotek’s track record continues to benchmark quality, service, and cost effective solutions for their customers. Naprotek expanded its footprint in the military and aerospace markets with its AS 9100 Certification, and the recent addition of ISO 13485 Certification will open doors in medical market, both at new product introduction and at production level.
